

1. Photography and filming in churches - Privacy Notice

This privacy notice is provided to explain what to expect when we collect and process your personal information in relation to photography and/or filming and streaming of church services in accordance with the UK General Data Protection Regulation (UK GDPR) and the Data Protection Act 2018.

2. Data controllers

The data controllers are: Revd Simon Couper, Vicar and Tim Little, PCC Secretary.

3. Personal information is collected for purposes of:

- Recording and uploading, or live-streaming services from our church, online, in order to reach out to those who are unable to attend in person, or who wish to participate in our services remotely
- For some events we may ask you to sign a media release form; this is normally done for photography where children are involved

4. The categories of personal data we collect are:

- Image – We may capture your image whilst filming the church service
- Name and contact details – we will record your name and contact details provided on the media release form, if we ask for one
- We also process “special categories” of information that may include:
 - Religious belief – By taking part in the service this may indicate religious belief
 - Archiving – certain services may be retained permanently for historic purposes

5. Photography

If we are running an event in the church, that event may have photographs taken. These are normally used to promote the activities of the church.

6. Consent

We collect and use personal data using consent and explicit (written) consent.

By signing the Media Release form [if we ask you to sign one], you are consenting to us using your data for the purposes set out above.

You may withhold your consent by sitting in a “film free area” of the church before filming, or photography starts. Such areas will be clearly marked by notices in the church.

In the filming areas, once live-streaming or filming has started, or group photographs have been taken consent cannot be withdrawn because your data can't be permanently removed from the internet, nor can a group video or photograph be edited to remove your image.

You may be asked to consent on behalf of children aged 16 years or under attending with you. Please consider whether they would want their images to be uploaded to the internet.

7. Sharing images

We will be sharing photographs and recorded, or live-streamed services with the public, by uploading it to social media and other internet sites, such as Zoom, Facebook, X [formerly Twitter] etc.

This means your data may be stored outside the UK. Each platform has its own privacy policy which describes how your data is used and protected.

8. Storage

We will keep your data for up to 3 years, except for certain special services, which may be retained permanently for archival purposes.

9. Your rights

You have the following rights regarding your personal data:

- Your right of access - You have the right to ask us for copies of your personal information.
- Your right to withdraw consent – You have the right to withdraw your consent as described in section 6 above*.
- Your right to rectification - You have the right to ask us to rectify personal information you think is inaccurate. You also have the right to ask us to complete information you think is incomplete*.
- Your right to request erasure - You have the right to ask us to erase your personal information in certain circumstances*.
- Your right to restriction of processing - You have the right to ask us to restrict the processing of your personal information in certain circumstances*.

*The rights to withdraw consent, or request erasure or restrict processing are limited, i.e. once the data is uploaded online, we are no longer able to erase or restrict the processing of individual images. In addition, the right to rectification only applies to the processing of your name and contact details, it cannot apply to your image captured on film.

You are not required to pay any charge for exercising your rights. If you make a request, we have one month to respond to you. You can exercise your rights by contacting us at the contact details below.

10. Contacts

If you have any complaints or queries regarding this processing activity or wish to exercise your rights, please contact Tim Little on pccsecretary@httchurch.org.

You have the right to make a complaint at any time to the Information Commissioner on 0303 123 1113 (local rate), or online at: <https://ico.org.uk/make-a-complaint/your-personal-information-concerns/>

11. Issuer

This policy has been issued and approved by the Parochial Church Council of Holy Trinity Church, Twickenham. It is reviewed every two years.
